DOMINGA OLIVERA, ONCE WEALTHY, PASSES AWAY

Domingo Olivera, once heir to an estate now worth $10,000,000, and a spy under General Fremont during the trouble with Mexico and California, died at San Jose Saturday at the age of 93 years. The funeral took place from this city Sunday, the burial being at Menlo Park. The old man was healthy and robust until only a few days ago.

Olivera's family settled in California soon after the first missions were established. His mother at one time owned the whole San Gabriel valley and she gave the land on which the mission was founded. After his return from Mexico, where he had been a spy, a price was placed on his life, and he fled for safety to the northern part of the State, where he has resided ever since. The old adobe house where Oliver was born on August 14, 1819, is preserved because of its historical interest. It is located at what is known as Freeman's landing in Los Angeles.

Olivera's heirs will retain counsel to recover some of the land which the old pioneer once owned, but to which he never returned. Surviving him are M. E. Oliver of Redwood City, Mrs. J. C. Diehl of Watsonville, Louis Olivera of Corte Madera and Henry Olivera, whose address is unknown.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon from the parlors of the Redwood City Undertaking Co Services were held at Mount Carmel church by Rev. Father Sullivan. wood City.

TAX EQUALIZERS MEET; NO COMPLAINTS FILED

The Board of Supervisors met as a Board of Equalization Monday, July 14th, there being present Wm H. Brown presiding, Joseph M Francis and John MacBain.

The minutes of the meting held July 7th were read and approved.

Assessor Hayward presented the military roll of the county, showing the names of 4372 citizens who are subject to military service.

The roll was accepted on motion of Francis, seconded by MacBain.

District Attorney Swart presented the election returns of the election recently held at Purissima, showing that ten votes had been cast in favor of joining the Halfmoon Bay Highschool district and assuming a proportionate share of the district's indebtedness. There were no votes in the negative.

The result of the election will be officially declared at the next regular meeting.

The board adjourned at 12 m., there being no applications for a reduction of assessment.

BRIDGE COLLAPSES, TEAM DROPS THIRTY-FIVE FEET

A large bridge over a creek near Steele, in the Fifth road district, collapsed under a heavy load Friday and precipitated two men and eight horses to the bed of the stream thirty-five feet below. John Davis, a blacksmith, who was driving the team, and his assistant escaped with a few cuts and bruises One of the horses was killed. Mrs. Davis who was with her husband, fortunately was not on the wagon when the bridge went down.

Word of the accident was sent to this city and Supervisors William H. Brown, D. E. Blackburn, Jos. M. Francis and John MacBain, accompanied by District Attorney Swart, arrived on the scene a few hours later. They attribute the accident to the excessive weight of the load and not to any faulty construction.

Davis claims that the county is responsible for the accident as the bridge was not in safe condition.

NATIVE SONS ARE ARRANGING BIG OUTING.

A committee of Palo Alto Native Sons is busy arranging for a two-day outing at La Honda, Saturday and Sunday. N. E. Malcolm, J. L. Greer, E. P. Cashel, E. A. Hettenger, E. B. Hockabout, J. H. Lewis and Geo. W. Tenny are the members of the committee.. Chef J. L. Greer has charge of the barbecue, with several able assistants.

The members of Redwood Parlor will join their Palo Alto brethren in the outing, thirty or more having arranged with Weatherbee to take them over in his auto truck Saturday afternoon and return late Sunday.

A grand ball will be given at Sears' hall Saturday evening and the barbecue will be held at 12 o'clock Sunday. There will be a tug of war and other sports during the afternoon.

Death of Young Man.

Dana Goodwin, a native of San Francisco, aged 23 years, passed away in this city Tuesday afternoon at the home of his grandfather, William Lasswell, after a painful illness of several weeks. The mother of the boy, Mrs. Carrie Goodwin, is a stewardess on the steamer Sonoma, now on its way from Australia and will reach San Francisco today. She was appraised by wireless of the serious illness of her son and every effort was made to prolong his life until her arrival in port. The body was shipped to San Francisco for burial. Young Goodwin was of excellent character. He was a silversmith by trade.

LOREN COBURN IS STILL IN THE FIGHT

ASKS THAT A JURY BE CALLED TO PASS ON HIS COMPETENCY TO HANDLE HIS ESTATE.

Aged Millionaire of Pescadero Will Not Submit to Other Management of His Vast Property.

Loren Coburn, the millionaire octogenarian, petitioned the Superior Court Monday for the restoration of his competency, of which he was deprived in the famous litigation which was recently ended in the Supreme Court of the United States. Coburn declares that he is sane and competent, and asks for a jury of men to pass on his ability to handle his $1,000,000 fortune, which he has accumulated during the eighty-seven years of his life.

Although in feeble health, the aged Pescadero pioneer, whose lands embrace over 30,000 acres in San Mateo and Monterey counties, is starting a legal battle which he says will eventually go to the highest tribunal in the land. The proceedings in the incompetency case extended over a period of three years and this case, which is Coburn's last resort, promises to be fought as bitterly.

In February, 1908, Azro A. Coburn of Boston brought suit to have his uncle declared incompetent. After years of litigation M. J. Hynes of San Francisco was appointed guardian of Coburn's vast estates. Coburn secured a new trial on an appeal to the Supreme Court. He was again declared incompetent and the judgment was affirmed by the Supreme Court. A month ago his writ of error was denied and Coburn lost his fight in the Supreme Court of the United States. His attorney is A. J. Treat.

Cullinan & Hickey, counsel for Hynes, also petitioned the Court to have Attorney Treat account for sums of money amounting to $5,000, which it is alleged Coburn gave to him while his cases were pending. Both cases are set for August 1st.

Owing to lack of a quorum there was no Board of Trade meeting Tuesday.

TWO HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS LOST IN THE MOUNTAIN

Miss Cecile Stanton and Miss Ruth Grove, two Palo Alto highschool girls, who were tramping to La Honda last Saturday attempted to make a short cut across the mountain and became lost in the woods.

At Woodside they were informed that by taking a short-cut over the hills they could easily save an hour or two. They decided to take the short-cut, but lost the trail, only to find themselves fighting their way through thick brambles and underbrush. They struggled on valantly, while the hour approached noon and with the sun beating down mercilessly upon them, and after two hours of fight both realized that they were lost.

Even then the girls refused to give in, but finding that their knapsacks impeded their progress through the stubborn thicket, decided to discard their packs and continue on in the hope of once again striking the trail. After hours of struggling, Miss Grove fell exhausted and her companion remained with her and called for help. Her cries were faintly heard at the home of Stanley W. Morshead, who sent out searching parties and the girls were found almost worn out and carried to the Morshead home where they were revieved. Their relatives in Palo Alto were notified and an automobile was sent to Portola to bring them home.

Redwood Won Twice Sunday.

In a fast and well-played game Redwood defeated the San Francisco Post team Sunday by a score of 5 to 4. The features of the game was the fast fielding of the locals. The Redwood City Boys' club team defeated the Noe Valley Merchants of San Francisco in a close ten-inning game by the score of 13 to 12. The feature of the game was the pitching of Torres, when with none out and the bases full he tightened up and did not allow a score.

Stuart Frank and Louis Genochio have returned from their vacation of several weeks, having seen much of the country during their absence.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

Under the new Arizona land law an alien cannot acquire land, but he will be premitted to own a mining claim. If any foreigners has money to invest in mines Arizona is ferfectly willing to meet him with true Western hospitality.

Some action should be taken by the city authorities to put an end to the rockless driving of automobiles on the County Road within the city limits. During the past week several narrow escapes from accidents to innocent users of the highways a result of the inconsiderate action of these speed maniacs have been repofted,

GOES DR. OSSLER ONE BETTER.

Accrding to a story recently going the rounds of the press, the Erie Railroad has gone the much ridiculed Ossler theory "one better" by fixing the age limit of usefulnes at 35 years, by refusing to employ any man over that age. According to the report, we are told that an alert, active man applied for a position in the freight claims department of that road was informed that there was a number of vacancies. When, however, he admitted that he was 39 years of age he was informed that the company has a rule in force against the employment of men over 35 years of age.

The age of usefulness as fixed by the Erie Railroad is, to say the least, startling. Certainly life must be rapid in this country if it can be said that a man begins to outlive his usefulness at the age of 35 years, just half the span of life as fixed by the Bible.

To attempt to fix any age limit to the usefulness of a man in full possession of his faculties and energies is nothing less than outrageous. Yet, it is a well known fact that men of 50 years or over who are compelled to seek employment find there is a prejudice against employing men with streaks of grav in their hair, while middle aged men who are active and competent frequently find it difficult to secure employment. In fact, not infrequently do we hear stories of of men who are really in the prime of life driven to sucide because of an inability to obtain the means of earning an honest livelihood.

This state of affairs makes the suggestion of Dr. Ossler seem a trifle less outrageous than it might have appeared at its first utterance. Dr. Ossler suggested chlorforming men who had outlived their usefulness. Society, which shuddered at this suggestion, may not chloroforn the man whom it considers has passed his usetulness, but it is willing to starve him to death or drive him to suicide,

THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

Many of the leading Democratic papers of the country are devoting a considerable amount of their editorial space to an endeavor to break the force of the impending disappointment in the result of tariff revision. Before the election they promised immediate relief from high cost of living. They now realize that there is no immediate prospect of a fulfillment of the promise Last summer it was vain to point out to them that high prices were world wide and proportionately the same in all countries, without regard to the tariff system.

At the recent session of the International Congress of Agriculture at Brussels, a leading topic of discussion was the high cost of food throughout the world. M. Meline, a former French premier, who occupied the chair and delivered the inaugural address, gave figures showing that the population of the world is increasing while the production of cereals is decreasing. As he views conditions, food products must of necessity go still higher. It may be a matter of surprise to some Democrats, who last year insisted that the American tariff was solely responsible for the advance in the cost of foods, that the subject of the tariffs was not even mentioned at this conference.

As a matter of fact, the United States, under a protective tariff, has been selling a larger surplus of food stuffs than is raised by any other country, and its tariff rates have no special bearing on the market basket problems. The coming free list will not materially reduce the price to the consumer of the articles admitted without duty. It is safe to predict that in the congressional elections of next year the common sense of American politics will reassert itself.

MAY ASK BANKERS TO BUY HIGHWAY BONDS

The Board of Supervisors, members of the advisory road commission and the governors of the Development Association are busily engaged in devising ways and means for disposing of enough bonds from the $1,250,000 issue to start work on the good roads system. Owing to the stringency of money in the bond market, it may be necessary to call upon the wealthy bankers and residents of the county to purchase a sufficient number of the bonds to begin the construction.

The supervisors have decided that $352,000 will be needed for the work mapped out for this year, and thus far the only bid received is from Antoine Borel for $25,000 worth. It is believed that other wealthy men living in the county will co-operate so that the road work may be pushed to completion.

The first work to be undertaken will be the improvement of the gaps of the State highway in the incorporated cities, the bay shore road to San Francisco and preliminary grading on the proposed boulevard down the coast.

SOCIETY GIRLS FACE BIG DAMAGE CLAIMS

Speed Mania Involves Daughters of Hillsborough Capitalist in Legal Tangles

Miss Ethel and Miss Helen Crocker, daughters of William H. Crocker, were named defendants in suits for $6000 damages which were brought in Superior Court yesterday by John J. Plaisted, a contractor of San Jose. Plaisted and his wife were occupants of a buggy, which, according to the complaint, was run down on the county road near Belmont by the Crocker girls on September 13, 1912.

Plaisted and his wife, it is alleged, were badly cut and bruised in the accident, Mrs. Plaisted sustaining internal injuries which rendered her "disordered, enfeebled and distmpered." According to Jas. T. O'Keefe, who, with John D. Willard, is acting as counsel for the Plaisteds, this condition caused the Plaisteds to live apart, and divorce proceedings will soon be started.

The complaint recites that the Plaisteds were driving on the right side of the road when they were struck by the Crocker automobile. It also charges negligence in operating the car.

Miss Helen and Miss Ethel Crocker are favorites in the younger society set. They are athletic, being splendid golfers and expert horsewomen. They spend a great deal of their time at outdoor sports and in the big open-air plunge at New Place, Crocker's Hillsborough estate. Miss Ethel Crocker recently returned from Europe, where she was presented to King George.

JOINS OLD CLASSMATES IN IOWA COLLEGE REUNION

C. M. Doxsee Indulges Reminiseent Mood in Poetical Vein.

C. M. Doxsee, who attended the class reunion of the University of Iowa last May, read at the class breakfast given by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Knapp in honor of the class of '83, Iowa State College, June 4, the following verses prepared by him for the occasion.

Old Father time plays curious tricks while whizzing on his way.
He makes a bunch of passing years seem like a single day,
And now 'ts said a score and ten have vanished in the past
Since we were on this selfish world by Alma Mater cast—
And yet it seems but yesterday that on the chapel stage
We solved the problems of the world and made a hist'ry's page.
And while today she has acquired greater efficiency
I kind o' like the way things were way back in '83.

A baseball team, so rumor says, in mother's proudest child,
All other teams have nervous fear as bats cross on the field;
And yet I'm sure if memory's kind, as I have read the score,
They sometimes get from two to three and seldom any more.
When thirty years ago the Prof's with Seniors crossed their stick,
It took two tally men to count the runs, they came so thick;
With Heiner at the batter's plate and "Stanty" on the wing
The campus was as thick with the scores as blackbirds in the spring.
Some modern sports the modern game would much prefer to see,
I kind o' like the games we played 'way back in '83.

The present college girl, 'ts said, "Is keener and more fair,
With Cuban heel and Paris gown and rodent in the hair—
She'll cook a steak or row a boat or turn a backward flip,
She'll cling to bar, and ring and strap with man-like, iron grip;
She'll write a verse or sing a song the sweetest ever sung.
She shows the temper of the steel when par'ying with her tongue.
Some say 'tis best that these are true," with all I'll not agree.
I kind o' like the girls we had 'way back in '83.

And now we learn an effort's made to segregate the sex,
That better bridges will be built if they're not 'lowed to mix
With engineers; but her bright smile, remember if you can,
Has greater strength in human life than Cantilever's span.
Would'st squeeze the juice from out the fruit, and say, "Tis best to eat?"
Would'st take the perfume from the rose and say, "It smells as sweet?"
I'd want some friend to sack me up and drop me in the sea
If the ladies had baen missing from the Class of '83.

We're proud of Alma Mater's growth, her record of the past,
We know that to keep step with time old things aside are cast.
Our faith is great that time will bring still greater worth and fame,
And every state and every clime shall know her worthy name.
And while we miss the old land marks that we so long to see,
We love her still with that same love that loved in '83.

—C. M. DOXSEE, '83.

Returns From Convention.

Roy W. Cloud returned from his trip to Salt Lake City Thursday. He went to attend the National Educational Association convention. The convention of the association in 1915 will be held at Oakland. Mr. Cloud enjoyed the services in the Mormon tabernacle, where a choir of 500 voices rendered inspiring music. Mr. Cloud on his way home visited Yellowstone Park. He spent three days viewing the beauties of that wonderland and enjoying the superb scenery. The awe inspiring sights of the valley and mountains of the park impressed the visitor from Redwod City and he marvelled at the wonderful work of nature, shown in this government reservation.

School Officials Reelected.

The Sequoia Union High school board met last Saturday and reemployed the old corps of teachers tha taught last semester. L. P. Behrens was reelected president of the board and D. E. A manual training building is soon to be erected and an athletic field purchased for the students.

Aged Woman Stricken.

Eloped, Wedded in This City

Walter Grandjean of San Rafael has beaten Battling Nelson in the race for the heart and hand of Miss Ballengero, daughter of the proprietor of a roadhouse at Fairfax. Miss Ballengero took Grandjean to be her lawful wedded husband at this city last week and now bride and groom are in San Diego on their honeymoon. The ceremony has remained a secret for a week. The bride at one time numbered among her admirerers Battling Nelson, then in the height of his ring career. Nelson laid violent siege to the heart of the fair Fairfax girl, but was obliged to take the count when Grandjean appeared in the arena of hearts.

LITTLE GIRL FALLS INTO CREEK; HER LIFE SAVED.

Daniel Redmond performed an act of heroism last Sunday afternoon when he saved little Margaret Rucker, aged 6 years, from drowning in the creek near the bridge on Broadway.

The little girl was down from San Francisco for the day with her mother, visiting at the home of Frank Roussell on Main street, and was playing on the wharf when she fell into the stream. Redmond was passing and heard the child's cry of distress and rushed to her rescue. He jumped into a boat and reaching for the girl, just as she was sinking the last time, saved her life. When she was able to walk he took her to her mother.

Scrubbing Unnecessary

Enamel your walls and woodwork and secure a finish that is hard and smooth, non-absorbent and sanitary. Enameled surfaces do not require scrubbing. An occasional wiping with a damp cloth will keep them looking clean and fresh.
